

Klove is a benefit to my community in that it provides music and information that is of national interest. I cannot say how much I appreciate the programming that is not influenced or interrupted by commercials.